Fireman Has Close Call

Orval Hansen, county fireman stationed at Redwood City, narrowly escaped death Tuesday when he played a stream of water on a live 2300-volt power line believed to have caused a two-acre fire on King's Mountain.

The blaze, which started in leaf mould and spread to grass and brush nearby, was caused when the power line fell, according to Fire Warden Bert L. Werder. Fire crews from Redwood City and La Honda stations responded to the alarm at 1:50 a.m.

In the darkness Hansen saw the sparkling power line in the brush, failed to recognize it, and directed a hose stream at the sparks. The resultant shock knocked him to the ground but did not injure him. Werder said the fact that Hansen was wearing rubber boots probably saved his life.

The fire was reported from the Allen Peak lookout station. No damage was reported.

Redwood City Fire Department extinguished a small grass fire at Hancock and Charter Sts. at 11 a.m. Wednesday. At 12:42 a.m. the department was called to the port when workers handling boxes of canned goods knocked off a water line pressure gauge and automatically sounded the fire alarm.

Menlo Park Fire Damages Automobile

Fire slightly damaged the automobile of John N. McKellip of 1485 Emerson St., Palo Alto, Sunday afternoon at El Camino Real and Watkins Ave., Menlo Park. Cause of the fire was not determined.

The seat of the car was burned. The fire was extinguished by firemen from the Menlo Park Fire District.

County Starts Seaman Drive

A drive for the registration of all men with sea experience has been started in San Mateo County by the United States Employment Service, Wade Sargent, manager of the employment office at 15 B St., San Mateo, said.

"Two thousand new ships now scheduled for production will require 100,000 seamen, radio operators, cooks, engineers and officers to man them," Sargent stated. "Any man who has once been to sea can do his country no greater service than to ship again."

New ships with new comforts, good food, and shore clubs restricted to the merchant marine await the victory fleet sailors, Sargent added. Pay also has been greatly increased. Able-bodied seamen are earning $300 a month, radio operators $400, engineers $450, cooks $300, and officers even more. In addition, each man receives free life insurance in the amount of $5000, and disability and personal effects insurance. Hospital service and dental care also are given without charge.

Albert F. Bullivant Sued for Divorce

Ida Bullivant has filed suit for divorce from Albert F. Bullivant, former deputy county controller who ran for the office of controller at the August primary. Mrs. Bullivant, charging cruelty, asked custody of their child, Ann, aged 8; for a share of the community property and for an equitable allowance for support.

They were married Jan. 14, 1933 and separated Aug. 1, 1941, the complaint states. Their home was at 321 W. Oakwood Blvd., Redwood City.

Graham Crackers For 'Tween-Meals'

Plenty of fresh, wholesome milk in the ice box . . . a box of Honey Maid Graham Crackers on the shelf . . . and you have the answer to the everlasting "tween-meal" problem.

Yes, there are endless possibilities with this happy combination of Honey Maid Graham Crackers and milk. It just takes a jiffy . . . and presto! Snacks are ready with no effort at all.

Particularly these days when women are practically swing-shifting with hubby, Honey Maids are a real life-saver. For instance, when he needs a hearty "fill-up" in the middle of the afternoon . . . or a substantial lunch packed (and do Honey Maids help here) . . . or a snack when he comes home in the small hours of the morning.

Then there's the children, too. Healthful lunches to pack . . . something to curb that after-school appetite . . . the "sweet tooth" problem . . .

At all these times, Honey Maids make a nice variation from the standard sandwich of bread. There're delicious spread with strawberry jam, cream cheese, peanut butter and jelly. And they become almost a dessert when they are made up sandwich-fashion with fillings of any chopped dried fruit (such as apricots, prunes, raisins, dates, figs, mixed with nut meats and enough mayonnaise to hold it together).

From the important nutrition standpoint, Honey Maid Grahams and a glass of milk help replenish that boundless energy that keeps children active every waking hour. And do they love 'em. No need to use persuasion when it comes to getting the glass of milk down when honey-flavored Honey Maids are served.

Try Honey Maids a la mode on the family the next time you have some ice cream handy! Just another way to get that "quart of milk a day" into the daily diet. It is simply two Honey Maid Graham Crackers put together with a slice of ice cream . . . and if you want to really doll it up, pour some chocolate sauce or fruit sauce over it. You'll be sure to get an encore on this.

Bagliore, the title sometimes given a musical composition light and quaint in character, comes from the Italian word meaning "flash of light."

Worker's Timesaver Wins Award

Sequoia Bus Drafted

Sequoia High School's new school bus has been drafted.

In line with a policy started in 1928 by Vice-Principal Donald L. Bogie, of buying one bus a year, the school last Spring ordered a new bus in Seattle to take the place of a 12-year-old Mack bus which Bogie believed worthy of retirement.

This Fall federal officials saw the shiny new bus in Seattle and contacted Bogie asking if the old bus was still running.

It was. Leaving word with school officials to keep it that way, navy officers took over the new one.

Linotype Operator Leaves $20,000

Miss Mary J. McKinley of Menlo Park, pioneer woman linotype operator who worked 30 years in the San Francisco Examiner composing room, left an estate valued at about $20,000 to 13 beneficiaries, most of them San Francisco Catholic charities. Miss McKinley's will, dated Oct. 6, 1941, was filed in superior court at Redwood City. She died Aug. 23, 1942.

In addition to personal friends, including Mrs. Ethel Schuler, 163 Seventh Ave., Menlo Park, Mrs. McKinley named as beneficiaries Rev. W. A. Netterville of San Francisco, the Catholic Chinese Center, St. Rose Academy, Home of the Good Shepard, St. Francis Xavier Japanese Mission, Home for the Aged of the Little Sisters of the Poor, Sisters of the Society of Helpers, Notre Dame des Victoires Parish, and the Apostle Ship of the Sea, all in San Francisco.

Miss McKinley lived at 164 Seventh Ave., Menlo Park, after her retirement.

The number of men committed to California state mental hospitals last year exceeded the number of women by 1172.

Redwood City Dog Show Promises Keen Competition

Entries for the 12th Annual Redwood City Dog Show, to be held Saturday at the Sequoia High School grounds, close today, Mrs. R. L. Lomax, chairman, said.

Competition in the pure breeds will be keen, judging from advance entries, Mrs. Lomax said. Cocker spaniels lead so far with 15 entered; shepherd police dogs follow with 8; dachshunds are third with 5. Other breeds represented are Bedlinton terriers, boxers and Irish wolfhound.

Mixed breeds have been placed in four classifications, Mrs. Lomax announced. The four groups are: large long hair, large smooth coat, small long hair and small short hair breeds. A trophy will be given for the best of each group and war stamps will be awarded in every class. Entry fee is 15 cents for each dog.

Judging will begin at 1:30 Saturday and all dogs must be on leash at the school grounds by 1 p.m. Bobby Burns Berman, noted dog judge will offer his dogs and defense trophy for the best trained dog in the show, regardless of breed.

Among entries received are those from Mrs. A. F. Lietge, Richard Johnson, Betty Sterling, Mary Lou Buck, Mrs. R. L. Spencer, Patsy Robb, Dolores Hubner, Ramona Pickens, Carolyn Starch and Bruce Brown.

Keep Seafood In Salt Brine

What to do with delicate, cooked tidbits of shrimp, flaked crab and lobster has puzzled many a housewife. Nancy Baker, lecturer at the Tribune Cooking School says there is a safe and simple way to save such seafood for a second appearance on the table. All you do is cover the cooked fish with a salt brine made by dissolving two teaspoons of salt in one cup of cold water, and store in the coldest part of the refrigerator. Thus you can skip a meal or two in your seafood menus, without waste, serving the remaining shrimp, crab or lobster warmed over and dressed up with a tempting white sauce a day later.

Free Booklet On Sandwiches

A new free booklet, especially designed to help war workers' wives and mothers prepare interesting, nutritious sandwiches economically, has just been prepared by a leading food producer and will be sent without charge to anyone who will write to Nancy Baker, care of Redwood City Tribune, and ask for it.

The booklet shows how to use a variety of breads to maintain appetite appeal, gives recipes for a number of interesting fillings which can be prepared either from ingredients available in every home or which can be had at small cost, and gives important tips on ways to lessen the labor of preparing sandwiches.

The tin in 60 toothpaste tubes is just about the amount of tin needed to solder electrical connections on one army training plane.

MENLO PARK NEWS

By D. E. O'KEEFE

The circus club at Atherton has closed its activities for the season. It was the most successful season in many years. The membership list is full.

Joe Gans has taken a house here for a year. He is an instructor in a local institution.

Dr. C. Mayhew, a heart specialist from Chicago, has purchased a home at Atherton. He will have offices in Menlo Park and Palo Alto.

George Gillman is here from New Orleans to engage in the wholesale tire business. He is to establish a home in the Flood estate. He has a wife and two pretty young daughters who are to enter Stanford.

A wager was made in town Tuesday by a local politician that Earl Warren would carry the state over Governor Olson by a plurality of 50,000 votes. A similar bet was made in Palo Alto last week.

Miss June O'Dea is here from Los Angeles to establish a home at Stanford Park. Miss O'Dea is an art student. She intends to continue her studies in Italy next Spring.

The last game of the season will take place tomorrow afternoon on the Palo Alto diamond between a San Francisco nine and the local team. The Palo Alto nine has won a majority of the games of the series. The final contest will be an interesting one. Odds are on the Palo Alto team to win.

YOUR ELECTRIC SYSTEM WORKERS

UNSEEN and unheard, with no brass band effects, the Electric Power workers are doing a magnificent job for the nation at war.

We think something should be said about the men who night and day are supplying the power, light and heat so urgently needed for production of more and more ships, tanks, planes and guns for our fighting men.

The scene is the same in any one of the scores of generating stations scattered through central and northern California. At the switchboard stands the operator, his eyes on a maze of indicators and signal lights, his ears attuned to the hum and throb of turbines and generators.

From that powerhouse, tucked away in some remote mountain canyon, flows a part of an endless stream of Electricity with a massed strength equivalent to that of 16 million men available to drive the motors of the war industries.

Distribution is governed in the office of the Load Dispatcher, strategically located in a central city. Here is the nerve center of the entire electric system, controlling the dispatch of Electric Power over thousands of miles of interconnected wires, meeting the emergencies of constantly changing load conditions, upholding the P. G. and E. tradition, "Electric Service whenever and wherever it is needed."

Careful planning has built up this system. Our organization is the product of years of work and years of preparation. Every one of our 9000 operating employees follows the watchword, "Efficiency." They, too, are part of the civilian army for the defense and protection of the United States.

May Stop Tire Torturers Three Shorts and a Long

The San Mateo County Traffic Safety Commission has suggested a method for warning those motorists who exceed 35 miles an hour, squeal tires on corners and specialize in jackrabbit starts and bucking bronco stops.

"The National Safety Council suggests that you give him three shorts and a long on your horn—the International Morse Code "'V' for victory," the local commission said.

"Perhaps if enough of us use this handy means of reminding the reckless driver that he is not doing his part in the conservation effort, he will soon catch on and fall into line," the suggestion concluded.

S. P. Unfurls Service Flag

Dedicated to 5299 Southern Pacific employes who have thus far entered military service, this large service flag now hangs in the lobby of the railroad's general office headquarters in San Francisco. D. J. Russell (right), vice president of the company, officiated at the unveiling ceremony, assisted by C. B. Kleupfer (left), past commander of S. P. Post No. 412, American Legion, and A. F. Gaynor, representing the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks. More than 4,000 employes took part in the program.

R. C. Ready for 'All-Out' Party

Redwood City is going to spread itself Saturday and throw an all-out party at Sequoia High School for the benefit of the Community Chest-United Service Organizations financial drive.

Reports from party committee chairmen indicated that tickets were rapidly disappearing from sales centers, that refreshments were all pledged and fully 200 women have signed to dance with service men who attend the function.

Loyola Flynn, chairman of the hostesses, said that the 200 women will appear in formal dress. The public may dress either formally or informally, she said.

The ticket committee has withdrawn all tickets which were left for sale with organizations and with outlying district merchants. Following a redistribution, the only ducats which will be available will be at the following establishments: Blake's Sandwich Shop, Territo's Market, Hilton Jewelry Store, Mitchell's Bootery, Tribune office, Holmquist's Hardware Store, Ratliffe Service Station Olsen Auto Co., Ryan Furniture Store and all Redwood City banks.

Approximately 400 dozen cookies have been pledged to help provide refreshment fo rhe celebrators and Mrs. Fred Schmitz, refreshment chairman, again urged housewives to bring them to the Sequoia High School cafeteria between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. Saturday.

Hall and decorating committee members voiced thanks last night to members of the high school faculty and the stage craft department for assistance in construction of a setting in the gymnasium which they believe will surprise all attending.

Preceding the function's start the Redwood City Municipal Band will present a 15-minute concert in front of the gym and then ticket holders will enter for presentation of colors at 7:55 p.m.

Following a vaudeville show dancing will be the order of the night.

San Mateo County Scouts Hold Fall Rally Tomorrow

A concert by the 70-piece San Mateo County Boy Scout Band will be featured tomorrow evening at the council fall reunion camp rally and court of honor in the Burlingame High School auditorium. Director Eugene Brose has trained the all-scout band in selected marches and classical numbers which will be presented to open the rally. The band, in addition, has arranged an extensive musical accompaniment for the show, "Here's to Old Camp Pescadero," which is on the entertainment program following the court of honor.

Opening at 7:30, the program following the concert, will include presentation of colors by Eagle Scouts of Knights of Dunamis, and words of welcome from Thomas Reynolds, Burlingame, advancement chairman, and Frank Lodato, San Mateo scout elected mayor at the 1942 camp. County court of honor members, headed by Chairman Bertram Watson of Burlingame, with Southern Division Advancement Chairman Amerigo Rossi of Redwood City, will present high awards to 40 Eagle Scouts and other high rank candidates. Cecil Wells, honor scout of Redwood City Troop 160, will receive a special award for meritorious service in the operation of Camp Pescadero.

Six hundred fifty scouts, parents, and visitors are expected for the rally. Members of the council scout emergency corps will be advanced to the rank of apprentice and full corps membership. Three senior scouts of San Mateo Troop 35, headed by Scoutmaster Holmes Benson, will be invested as charter members of the first air scout patrol in San Mateo County, under the new air scout program launched by the national council this year.

COMMUNITY CHEST

San Mateo County Council, Boy Scouts of America, is one of the agencies supported and made possible through the Redwood City Community Chest. Six hundred Redwood City scouts, cubs, Sea Scouts, and leaders during the past year carried on intensive programs of training in character and citizenship in 11 different troops, ships, and packs throughout the city.

Twenty-one worthy scouts enjoyed a free week at Camp Pescadero in the redwoods during the Summer as guests of the council. This vacation gift is made possible annually by donations to the Community Chest.

Participating in three large courts of honor, a 200-scout campore, and the 650-boy county camporee during the year, local scouts enjoy the finest of opportunities to take part in large scale public programs according to reports released by the national scout council. Cubs in packs sponsored at the John Gill, McKinley, and Garfield Schools had a total of 24 monthly parent meetings, and participated in more than 108 weekly den meetings led by competent den mothers and older Boy Scout den chiefs. Cubbing activities culminated at the council cuboree attended by 300 cubs and parents in Flood Park last June.

Sea Scouts cruised a total of 2600 member-sea miles during the past season aboard the S.S.S. "Challenger" based in the Redwood City Harbor. Winning high honors at the recent Regional Sea Scout Regatta in Martinez, they rate high among the five ships in the county. This week 50 Sea Scouts and Boy Scouts are doing their part to put over the U.S.O. benefit dance.

TROOP ACTIVITIES

In variation to a regular meeting last week, Troop 162 members of Redwood City paid a surprise bicycle visit to Troop 49 of the neighboring Stanford Area Council in Palo Alto. Scribe Bill Reynolds reports that 16 members, headed by Scoutmaster J. J. McCann and S. P. L. Al Schwartz made the trip.

San Carlos Troop 153 leaders met with council officials at scout headquarters last week to plan training of new members of the troop staff. Chester Anderson, troop committeeman, has accepted the position of scoutmaster, replacing Hank Glaves who has volunteered for the army.

Redwood City scouts will serve as aides at a pet show at Sequoia High School Saturday afternoon.

Acting Asst. Scoutmaster Jim Malcolm was appointed this week by the troop committee of Atherton Troop 163 to take over regular meetings replacing Richard Helfrich who has joined the navy.
